

EAA Corben Chapter 93 Hoot and Betty Gibson Memorial Scholarship

Purpose

To encourage deserving student pilots to continue their flight training to completion and continue their participation in EAA and its activities.

Chapter 93 Scholarship

EAA Corben Chapter 93 is a non-profit aviation organization with its main mission that of encouraging participation in aviation through its ongoing educational programs and activities. The chapter will offer a $1000 scholarship to a deserving student pilot applicant to support their continued flight training activities. The scholarship will be named the Hoot and Betty Gibson Memorial Scholarship in honor of their many years of dedicated service and support to the Chapter and EAA in general.

Qualifications for the scholarship are as follows:

- United States Citizen
- Active student pilot training through solo flight
- Member of the EAA in good standing

All applications will be reviewed by the Scholarship Committee and the recipient will be notified of their selection. The scholarship recipient and their guests will be invited to the next Chapter 93 meeting to receive the award.
